♩ = 140

The image displays a drum score for the song 'YYZ' by the band Rush. The score is written on ten staves, each representing a different drum part. The tempo is set at 140 beats per minute. The music is characterized by complex rhythmic patterns, including numerous triplets and sixteenth-note runs. The notation uses standard drum symbols: 'x' for cymbals, 'o' for toms, and various note values for the snare and bass drums. The score is divided into measures, with measure numbers 5, 9, 12, 15, 18, 22, 28, 33, and 39 indicated at the beginning of their respective staves. The overall style is highly technical and intricate, typical of progressive rock drumming.

This image displays a drum score for the song "YYZ" by the band Rush. The score is presented in a standard musical notation format, consisting of ten systems of staves. Each system begins with a measure number (79, 82, 85, 88, 91, 94, 97, 103, 108, 113, 119) and a drum set icon. The notation includes various rhythmic patterns, such as eighth and sixteenth notes, rests, and triplet markings (indicated by a '3' above the notes). The score is written in a style that is common for drummers, with a focus on the rhythmic structure of the piece. The background is white, and the notation is in black ink.
